

Using Nature's Gifts:
Mandalas Made and Photographed by Riverview's Grade two Students

written and Edited by The Grade Two students from 2022-2023 and Ms. Amanda Tulli

I would like to thank Mme. Annick and Mme. Isabelle Croteau for allowing me to use some of their class time to have the students create and photograph their mandalas. I also would like to express my gratitude to Ms. Brown for supporting this project and providing us with funding to purchase several books. Finally to my wonderful students, thank you for taking creative photos and for composing poems straight from the heart.

Sincerely,

-Ms. Amanda Tulli

 storyjumper

The Fall Season is Special

A Poem by: Ms. Amanda Tulli and Her 201 Art Class

Photo by: Arthur & Cedar

Fall is a special time of year.
There are many reasons why.
Children are smiling from ear to ear as they watch the leaves fly.

Orange, green, yellow, and brown.
It's the time of the year when the leaves fall down.

Photo by Alfred & Cedar

The cool breeze shakes the trees, and the crows take off in flight.

The days get colder, but the mornings are bright.

Photo by Charlotte & Ravyn

Squirrels nibble their acorns
and the first frost begins to form.

Photo by Elsa & Mina

Pinecones plummet to the floor.
As the wind picks up, the leaves fall even more.

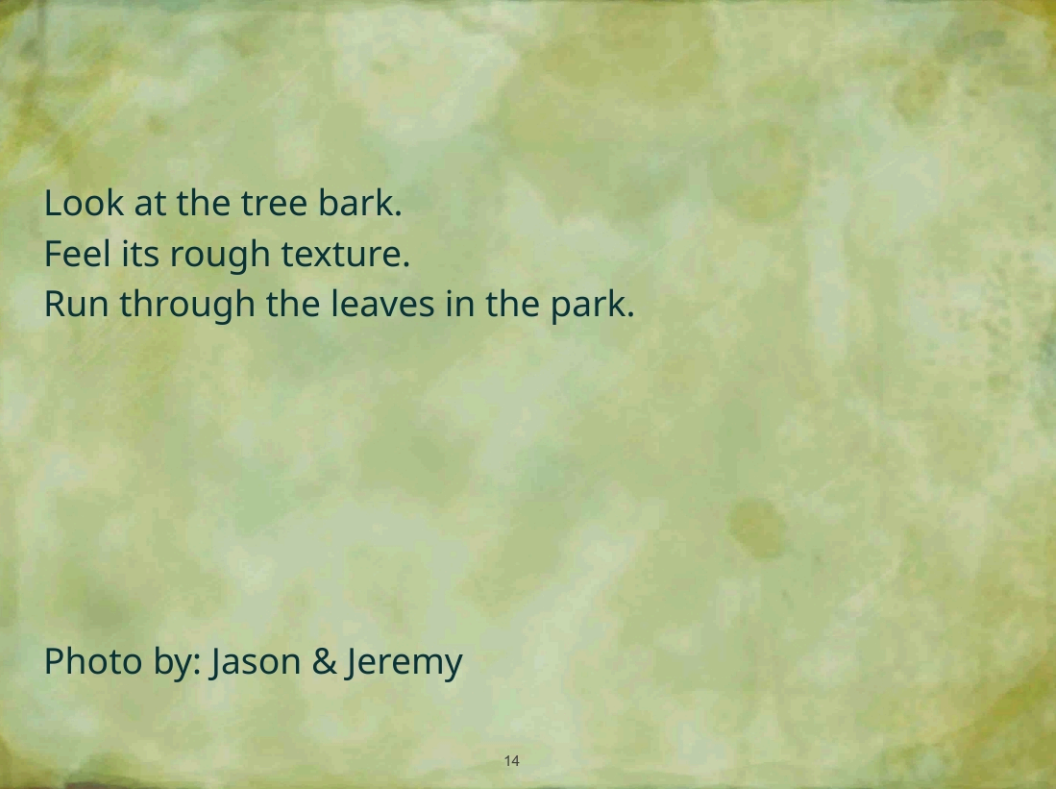

Photo by Emma & Natalia

Trees are bare and leaves are scattered everywhere.
Show nature that you care.
Go for walks and appreciate the sights before the early nights.

Photo by Emma & Zozo

Look at the tree bark.
Feel its rough texture.
Run through the leaves in the park.

Photo by: Jason & Jeremy

Feel the crispy leaves and smell the earthy tones.
See the branches sway and rake the leaves that were blown.

Now you can see why fall is so special.
Just imagine nature without the fall, well that would be terrible!

Photo by Maya & Eva-Maria

A Journey Through Fall

A Poem by: Ms. Amanda Tulli and the 202 Art Class

Photo by: Juliette & Charlotte L.

Fall is a special season as there is so much to see.
Won't you come along on this journey with me?

Photo by Arthur & Kaaveh

Leaves are falling everywhere.
The pinecones that were on trees are no longer there.

Photo by Edith & Rowan

Strong gusts of wind shake the trees of their leaves.
Now the breeze brings about a freeze.

Photo by: Jayden & Aria Sofia

Leaves turn from forest green to golden yellow and red.

Brown is the colour of the leaves that lay dead.

Photo by: Juliette & Charlotte L.

Squirrels chase each other up and down trees.
I also see them searching for acorns beneath the leaves.

Branches can be found on the ground.
All you hear are crows making their sound.

Photo by: Viggo & Nicole

Earthy, crisp air fills my lungs.
This feeling of freedom makes my core hum.
Every year I just cannot wait until the fall comes!

Photo by: Tahiya, Mélodie, & Lily

storyjumper.com